

Lovett Bay Waterfront Home plus Spacious Boatshed

Experience the peaceful waters of Lovett Bay with truly breathtaking aquatic and bush views of Pittwater and the Ku-ring-gai National Park.

Sitting on the edge of the sparkling waters of Pittwater this home presents a rare lifestyle opportunity with the potential for further enhancement.

The original waterfront cottage is built partly over the clear waters and sandy beach and makes a spacious boatshed, home office, artist's retreat or fully self contained residence. The waterfront position provides the advantage of 180 degree views from Clareville to Church Point and into Lovett Bay.

The main house is nestled amongst tall gums with wide views and consists of three bedrooms on the upper level and a teenager retreat via spiral stairs on the lower level. An open plan lounge/dining room, with a slow combustion heater and timber floors, opens through sliding doors out onto a spacious deck which provides an ideal space to entertain or relax.

Waterfront facilities include the spacious boatshed, and a deep water jetty and pontoon capable of mooring a large yacht.
