27 Sturdee Lane, Elvina Bay

Exceptional Waterfront Living

An original and spacious deep waterfront farm house on 1037 square metres in Elvina Bay which has been architecturally enhanced and boasts both charm and character and offers relaxed living and sun drenched alfresco areas.

The home is light filled with warm interiors, high pitched ceilings and wide windows and doors which open onto fully wrap around decks to enjoy the stunning and tranquil 180 degree Pittwater views.

An elegant open plan lounge and dining room is featured with a combustion fire place, polished timber floors and reverse cycle air conditioning. A quiet room for an office or library leads to an adjoining large studio ideal for the artist, which in turn leads out to the vine covered terrace, gardens and a sun trap courtyard.

Comprising four bedrooms all with water views, the main with an ensuite and dressing room. There is a full second bathroom and a third toilet with under floor heating in some areas. Separate to the house a quaint guest cottage or fifth bedroom.
