24 Thompson St, Scotland Island

A Quality, Craftsman Built Home

A serene bushland setting finds this quality, craftsman built home on a 1220 sqm block with an easterly aspect. Offering a wonderful sense of space, style and attention to detail with high vaulted ceilings and beams symbolising the sun and moon.

Wide bifold doors lead onto a spacious wrap around deck ideal for outside entertaining and a large bifold window opens to reveal the timber breakfast bar.

The generous and bright open plan design offers a modern kitchen and a combined lounge/dining which is complimented by polished timber floors throughout.

Comprising three bedrooms, two on an elevated level and an impressive timber bathroom with a full sized bath which adds to its attraction.

A second toilet is located in the spacious utility room.

The home surrounds the private and sheltered sandstone courtyard providing a perfect place to soak up the afternoon sun.
